Madrid, October 9. N. S.

HIS Majesty has been lately indispoſed of an Ague, but as he has had no Fit for ſome Days paſt, we hope it will not return any more. The Queen has likewiſe been out of Order, but is now perfectly Recover'd. We have receiv'd Advice from the Camp before Barcelona, that the Duke de Popoli had ſent a Detachment of the Garriſon of Mataro to Badalona, which had ſeized on ſome Proviſions the Miquelets had privately laid up there, with a deſign to Tranſport them to Barcelona in ſmall Boats they had prepared for that purpoſe. Don Feliciano de Bracamonte had ſummon'd the Governor of Caſtel-Ciudad to ſurrender that Place, which he conſented to do, upon a Promiſe of Pardon made him in the King's Name. Monſieur Bracamonte having placed a Garriſon there, under the Command of Brigadier Caſtro, renewed his March in purſuit of General Nebot, who retired from him through very rough and difficult Ways, in which he loſt a conſiderable Number of Men and Horſes; but at laſt he got into the Caſtle of Cardona with a few Followers.

Venice, October 13. N. S. The Electoral Prince of Saxony having received Orders from King Auguſtus, his Father, to return home, has already ſent away part of his Equipage, and intends to ſet out himſelf to Morrow. The Senate has lately diſpatch'd an Expreſs to Vienna, with Letters for the Emperor, deſiring his Majeſty to recal his Troops that are upon their March towards the Milaneſe, and to join with this Republick in other Meaſures, for preventing the Contagious Diſtemper, which Rages in Germany, from ſpreading it ſelf to Italy. Cardinal Priuli is gone to his Abbey in the Veroneſe, from whence he intends to ſet out for Rome. We are informed by two of our Veſſels lately arrived from Smirna, that the Plague was entirely ceaſed in that City, and the adjacent Parts. Letters from Rome bring an Account, that the Mortality of Cattle continued thereabouts, upon which account there had been a Proceſſion, at which the Pope aſſiſted in Perſon, accompanied by Six and twenty Cardinals, and Eighty Biſhops. They write from Naples, that the Emperor's Birth-day had been Celebrated there with great Magnificence. The Count de Taun, Eldeſt Son of the Vice-Roy, was created Duke of Similiano in Calabria, by Letters Patent from his Imperial Majeſty.

Stetin, October 20. N. S. A great part of the Muſcovite Troops paſs'd by this Place ſome Days ago on their March towards Poland; and it is thought they will be followed very ſoon by General Baur with the remainder. On the 18th Prince Menzikoff likewiſe paſs'd through this City in his way to Petersbourgh, where he is order'd to attend the Czar. The Swediſh Troops that were in Garriſon here, and are at preſent encamped near this Place, are to be tranſported to the Iſle of Rugen.

Berlin, October 21. N. S. On the 17th the King removed from Charlottemberg to Potſdam, and the Queen came to this Place. Monſieur Mardefeldt, who was lately ſent by this Court with a Commiſſion to the King of Denmark in favour of the Houſe of Holſtein Gottorp, returned hither a few Days ago. It is ſaid he had but little Succeſs in his Negotiations, and was referred by the Daniſh Miniſters to the Aſſembly of the States of the Circle of Lower Saxony, which is to be held at Brunſwick; and the Affairs of Holſtein, as well as of Swediſh Pomerania, and the Dutchy of Bremen, are to be determined there. Yeſterday Count Wakerbart, King Auguſtus Miniſter at the Court of Vienna arrived from thence, but was ſtopp'd at the Gates upon account of the contagious Diſtemper which ſtill reigns in that City, and it is not yet known whether he will be obliged to perform a Quarentine. We have received advice from Pomerania, that the Muſcovite Troops were upon their March out of that Country into Poland. Part of them are to paſs through the Newmark, and the reſt through Pruſſian Pomerania.

Hamburgh, October 27. N. S. This Day was held an extraordinary Aſſembly of the Burghers, in order to deliberate upon ſome Pretenſions the Elector of Hanover has form'd of poſting Troops round about this City. The King of Pruſſia has writ to his Electoral Highneſs to acquaint him with the Sequeſtration of Stetin, and to aſſure him he had no other View in it than to eſtabliſh the repoſe of thoſe Parts, and to procure a General Peace between the Northern Powers. The Muſcovite Troops are upon their March out of Pomerania, at which the King of Denmark is very much diſpleas'd, and has expreſſed great Diſſatisfaction at the Sequeſtration of that Province. Letters from Petersbourg bring an account, that the Czar had declared he would invade Sweden next Year with all the Force he could raiſe, unleſs the Senate of that Kingdom conſented to a juſt and reaſonable Peace before. To that end he has ordered a Hundred Galleys more to be built, and had already liſted a conſiderable Number of Seamen. They write from Warſaw, that the Turkiſh and Tartarian Miniſters were admitted to an Audience of King Auguſtus on the 17th, and that Count Tarlo, who had follow'd the Party of King Staniſlaus, had thrown himſelf at his Majeſty's Feet, and obtain'd his Pardon.

Hague, Nov. 1. N. S. On the 30th paſt the Earl of Strafford, in conjunction with the Deputies of the States-General, held a Conference with all the Miniſters of the Princes of the Empire. Yeſterday he was again in Conference with the Deputies of the States upon the Affairs of the Low-Countries. To morrow his Excellency intends to ſet out for Great-Britain, and at the ſame time the Duke D'Oſſuna, who came hither to take leave of him, will return to Utrecht.
